DAUGHTER DENIES LOVE FOR MOTHER AS LATTER WEEPS

Beatrice Katz, 16, Tells Court Childhood Show of Affection Was Formality.

THE JUSTICE IS AMAZED.

Judge in the Separation Suit Shows Dismay at Girl's Strange Attitude.

Beatrice Kats, a sixteen-year-old fadieigh laigh School girl, tossed her Manchard's Court to-day and declared that she had not loved her mother she kissed and hugged her mother, as a child and young woman, she said, she did so "merely as a matter of bandsomely attired in a blue gown and emphasized during her testimony. Her mother, Mrs. Hannah Katz, who is suing the girl's father, Henry W. Kats, a wealthy Broadway merchant. for a separation, sat within a few feet of the child. Miss Katz (pronounced Cates, she says) gazed frigidly at her mother, who sat quietly sobbing in a chair near the jury box.

The girl is one of the four Katz children who have been in more than twenty schools in ten years because of the wrangle over their custody hetween father and mother. Miss Kats was called in connection with the mother's claim that the father poisoned the minds of her children against her. Another daughter, Florance, was waiting in court to testify. Still another, Sybil, is marired and the boy, Leroy, is in school.
ADMITS HER MOTHER, BUT DE-NIES LOVE.

"You know this woman is your mother, Beatrice?" asked the lawyer. "Oh, yes," returned the girl, undis "And you still have a child's love for the mother who bore it?"

particle of love for your mother?" "Not the slightest, sir," returned the daughter, promptly and with evident defiance Mrs. Katz turned her chair about until her back was to her husband She gazed out the window into Broadway. As the tears rolled down her cheeks her daughter continued to assert that she had lost all love for her since the mother placed her in an asylum in Philadelphia when she was seven years old. "But your mother told you she had send her none and that she was com-pelled to send you there, didn't she?" "Yes; she said all of that, but I did

"But you wrote to her, called her Dearest Mamma, and when she mame to see you in school you kissed her and placed your arms about her SHOW OF AFFECTION WAS ONLY RESPECT, SHE SAYS. Yes, certainly, but I did so simp to show my respect for her."

"Why have you lost all love for seck in his chair in perplexity.

The witness then declared that instead of poisoning his children's be had to avoid protracted and exsides against his wife, the father pensive litigation and make possible the prompt payment of a dividend of to their mother.

metually told them to love and write to their mother. "He always told me to write to her bad I did not obey," she said. did not obey," she said.

Kats charges that her husabandoned her several years the bids are opened, as the amounts bid for the several properties will naturally have a marked effect upon the basis of settlement.

Society Woman Who Gets Divorce, Husband She Declares Was Cruel

ROBERT GOELET.

SIEGEL DEPOSITORS

MAY SPEEDILY GET

DIVIDEND IN CASH

Court Orders Various Receivers to Try to Reach a Compromise Agreement.

States District Court to-day directed that when the bids for the various Sheppard jr., receivers of the Siegel stores, and Henry Melville, receiver of the bank, to see if they can reach

MRS. GOELET WINS DIVORCE SUIT ON CRUELTY CHARGE

Decree Doesn't Mention Alimony and Agreement Terms

Are Secret. NEWPORT, March 18 .- Mrs. Elsie Vhelen Goelet obtained a divorce from Robert Goelet before Justice Sarrows in the Superior Court here at the end of yesterday's hearing, but nothing could be learned to-day of any alimony that might have been agreed on beforehand. Previously counsel had agreed on the disposition of the children. A decree accordingly was entered that Peter, two years old, is to remain in the custody of his mother until six, when his custody will be jointly between mother and father. The other son, Ogden, now seven, is to be jointly in the custody of mother and father. The reading of depositions consumed hree hours. The suit was not coned by counsel. Though every effort the depositors in the defunct Siegel secret, Justice Barrows declined to was made to have the proceedings bank, Judge Hough of the United hear the case in private. The lawyers, however, in a manner got around Siegel enterprises are opened on printed and copies given the court and attorneys. James Collins, Mrs. Goelet's attorney, then read the testiby William A. Marble and John S. mony in practically a whisper. He was aided by the formation of a St. Patrick's Day parade just outside the court room.

In granting Mrs. Goelet's petition for the divorce, Justice Barrows said: compromise as to the final disposi-"Way have you lost all love for your mother?"

Because she spoke ill of my father and because she never showed me the love that a mother should. She take the schoolmasters where we attended classes about her domestic affairs. She said father was running shout with other women and all that, you know, embarrassed us greatly."

Instice Blanchard, who has heard more than den thousand separation suits, wiped his forehead and sat back in his chair in perplexity.

It such an agreement can be reached it is to be submitted to the court and may then, in its judgment, set to dear the court and may then, in its judgment, so well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, as well as physical violence. The testimony shows a continuous use of insulting and abusive language, a tion of the claims of the banking and negotiations looking to a compromise of the claims. He further stated: "It is desirable that a compromise MRS. VON CLAUSSEN EXPERT ON CELLS.

There can be no agreement until Famous Prisoner Qualifies as Judge of Conditions in Prisons.

when she declined to return to Mat- Atlantic every little while to become teawan pending the argument on a familiar with Continental languages. motion for habens corpus to be

"FIGHTING PARSON" HOLD CHAUFFEUR RESTS ON LAURELS OF MAIL AUTO ON AFTER FIST FIGHT HOMICIDE CHARGE

"Twas Nothing," Says Rev. Driver Caught Hours Later on Clue Given by Pursuing Autoist.

Odell admitted that he drove a

The victim of the accident was

DIVORCE TESTIMONY

SPOILS DAMAGE SUIT

Railroad Attorney Digs Up

a Recent Suit.

Her own defense in a divorce auit tried last week before Justice Crane

Emery in a sutt for damages tried to-the Nassau Ratiroad Company for injuries suffered in boarding an "L" train at New Utrecht avenue and Thirty-ninth street.

Mrs. Emery alleged that these in-witness stand and swore that he lived with Mrs. Emery while her husband on one occasion punished her so se-verely as to inflict permanent injuries, causing neurasthenia. When her testo the damage suit jury a verdict was returned for the railroad company.

CHILD STARTS A FIRE.

HE WHIPPED A SALESMAN VICTIM'S HEAD CRUSHED.

Brooklyn Clergyman Com- She Is Identified This Afterplimented by Magistrate for noon as Elizabeth Riley, of His Courageous Action. City Hospital,

The Rev. Ira W. Henderson, ath-Frank Odell, a chauffeur, of No. 174 letlo pastor of the Sands Street Alexander avenue, the Bronx, was Memorial M. E. Church, Brooklyn, held by Coroner Healy in $2,500 ball found himself receiving congratula- this afternoon on a charge of homitions of the sort that a successful cide. Detective O'Brien, who arrested "white hope" might expect when he Odell, says he was the chauffeur in sat down to breakfast in his apart. charge of a mail truck which ran ment at No. 61 Pierrepont street this down and killed a woman at Fourth avenue and Twenty-sixth street at

Mr. Henderson, who is of the gentle 7.40 o'clock last night. disposition of the most orthodox truck loaded with mail up Fourth gentlemen of the cloth, was complimented by Magistrate Corrigan in the avenue past Twenty-sixth street at Night Court last night for having the time of the accident, but stoutly taken a hand in a fight in Grand denied hat he had run over anybody. Central station when John Stern, a Witnesses of the accident say that husky travelling salesman, knocked the chauffeur put on speed after rundown and beat a crippled hat dealer. ning over the woman. James Brennan, who had just arrived identified this afternoon as Elizabeth in the city from Danbury. Brennan Reilly, forty-five years old, a launhas only one leg. dress, who worked at the City Hos-

Mr. Henderson of Militant

Defense of a Cripple.

The fighting parson of Brooklyn is a

The fighting parson of Brocklyn is a big man, and his red blood boiled last night as he stepped from a train in time to see an assault upon a cripple.

"It seemed to me that the quarrel about the possession of a handbag was a poor excuse for the assault." Mr. Henderson said to-day to an Evening World reporter. "The two men had way to the Grand Contral Terminal. The woman failed to see the truck World reporter. "The two men had some words and went to the baggage room. There the big and sound one knocked down the cripple, sending him unconscious to the floor. Stern did not stop there, but began beating the prostrate man.

"Of course I, just as others did, tore him from his victim. He broke away from us and resumed the assault. A from us and resumed the assault. A third time he slipped out of his coat and tried to get at Mr. Brennan. Then he was roughly handled. He might have been harshly treated."

"Charles King of No. 52 Page attention."

MINISTER'S SKILL WITH FISTS SEEMED REMARKABLE.

had failen.

Charles King of No. 52 Pine street, who was in his touring car, saw the occurrence and ordered his chauffeur to chase the mail truck. The two cars speeded along, dashing in and out among the traffic, but the touring car had the better of the heavy laden truck, and slowly drew along-ride.

Witnesses told Magistrate Corrigan that the tall, well built minister handled Stern with a skill that gave hint of boxing lessons. They said that the battling parson used excellent footwork as well as clever flat work, but Mr. Henderson declined to admit to-day that the affair reached the proportions of actual fisticuffs.

Visitors were calling on him, he with the returned to the scene of the killing. SEEMED REMARKABLE.

said, and the telephone bell was ringing. If the story continued its rounds and there was much further publication there was danger of his being transferred from the Saturday column of church news to the Bob Edgren page. Big as he is, and as able Henderson seemed extremely anxious to get under the ropes and retire from his role of militant.

Stern's two eyes were closed in some mysterious fashion, his nose was battered and he seemed to have already paid fairly well for knocking down proved the undoing of Mrs. Mary A and trampling a cripple when Magistrate Corrigan gave him the added day before Justice Van Sicien in the

it and I congratulate you," the Magis-trate said, addressing Mr. Henderson. "If there were more preachers like you this world would be a happier

THE TANGO IS DOOMED! TWIN BEAUTIES SAY SO

Daughters of Governor Foss, Back From Continent, Learned Just Lots of Things.

There was one chaperon who breathed a deep, deep sigh of relief when the ateamship Kronprinzessin Certifie of the North German Lead (Certifie of the North G 3 This particular chaperon had as her of former Gov. Foss of Massachusetts.

The two girls, Esther and Helen, nineteen years old, look so much alike Mrs. Ida von Claussen, twice de- that even the chaperon had difficulty clared insane by judges and twice in telling them apart. This is not her found sane by juries qualified as an first experience abroad with them, for expert on prisons and cells to-day their father sends them across the

"We have been in Berlin studying German," announced the twins in Mrs. von Claussen said she pre- chorus while the chaperone frowned

Mrs. Philip Coudert a Bride Here; ONE SHOT HITS TH Formerly of Opera Comique in Paris

The marriage of Philip Coudert, a | the bridegroom, who gave her in ma son of the late Louis Leonce Coudert ringe. She had only one attendant, and a nephew of Frederic R. Coudert, a stater of the bridegroom, Mrs. Harand Miss Odette Le Fontenay of old Perry Erskine, who was Mrs

Paris, formerly of the Opera Comique, took place yesterday afternoon in the Church of St. Vincent de Paul, in West Twenty-third street.

The bride, who wore a white gown topped by a black picture hat, carried lilies of the valley, and walked with Louis L. Coudart, a brother of Erskine, a sister of the bridegroom.

Woman Loses $30,000 Action When HARD WORK IS SURE RECIPE FOR BEAUTY SAYS FAIR LILLIAN juries are permanent and have made her the victim of neurasthenia. She described the injuries at length on the Mrs. Lillian Russell Moore, her maid and her husband returned this John Downey, a boilermaker out of witness stand.

Kings County Supreme Court. Mrs. Women of Jamaica Hide Their Age Beneath Youthful and Pretty Backs.

Counsel for the railroad company sprung a surprise on the plaintiff by producing the records of a divorce suit tried last week, entitled Arthur L. Emery vs. Mary A. Emery. It was admitted that the Mary A. Emery who was defendant in the divorce suit was the plaintiff in the damage suit.

The evidence in the divorce suit showed that Arthur L. Emery is chief engineer on a steamer plying between the sleety, snowy, rainy morning. She business man, goes to his assistance Cecilie of the North German Lloyd steamer plying between New York paper woman, "without being proud reached her pier at Hoboken to-day, and Galveston. Bicknell went on the of the fact that he or she is a native of the fact that he or she is a native of the United States. To my mind the canal is as great an achievement as the pyramids, and the people take their hats off to every American. They ought to

"Down in Jamaica I found the pertimony in the divorce suit was read fection of women and the secret of perpetual youth. I am going to write some stories about the women. The women of Jamaica have the perfect youthful back. From the rear you can't tell whether a woman is young or old. Her back is as straight as an arrow and, of course, more graceful.

ferred one of the "filthy, vermin-in- fested cells in the Tombe Prison to peternen."

The dynamic ferred one of the "filthy, vermin-in- fested cells in the Tombe Prison to peternen.

The second cells in the Tombe Prison to peternen.

The second cells in the Tombe Prison to peternen.

The strength of the second cells in the work office, will oppose her effort to regain her lib. The targo and other of cells of the second cancer are disposed in the work office, will oppose her effort to regain her lib. Of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the moder dances are danged and other of cells of the cells of the cells of the cells of the child aroused Mrs. Although the nails every clear the moder danged and other of cells of the cells of t men won't work, so the women refus morning on the United Fruit liner work, was a stowaway on the Cala-mares. For four days he was stowed Calamares from a cruise through the west Indies and South American ports. Mrs. Moore looked as charming as of yore in the early hours of his brother, who, he says, is a local brother, who, he says, is a local brother, who, he says, is a local brother.

$4,000 ESTATE UNCLAIMED. lithia water drink, which quickly

Two Men Heles Rosming No On

An unclaimed estate of $4.00 in cash Like the stamp on pero of Kings County to-day when Louis Tissot, executor, filed the will of Mrs.
Hester H. Hubbard, who died on March 1. The will directs that the estate shall be equally divided between James S.
Hubbard and William I. Hubbard, the that either was missing at the time of her death his share should be held in the other William I Hubbard, the executor says has not been heard from for four years John S Hubbard, a professional

AND SECOND BULL KILLS MAD BU

Strange Attack on Man Wife Explained Wounded Pal Turns Up

Blood trickling down the side o Bayard street attracted the atte of Detectives Foley and De to-day. They took the man to Headquarters, where it was

He was recognised as Schmidt, recently released from Sing, after serving a term of for burglary. Schmidt said by shot last night in the flat of Ol

The arrest of Behmidt o he mystery attending the in Ritter's flat. Ritter to in heek and Carlson's body to Morgue, he having shot and ter's home after wounding Ritter and Ritter's wife with one let. The police theory is that C the spoils of a burgiary.

Ritter's last night when Cari tered the flat and fired a shot The builet creased his scale.

United States District

SALTS IF KIDNEYS

Harmless to flush Kide and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weak men won't work, so the women refuse to support them. They find enough to do to support themselves and their children.

"The women of Costa Rica are the most beautiful creatures I ever saw in my life. They are the real Spanish people. I don't recall having seen an old woman in Port Limon. They all look young and are just the loveliest things in the world. I attracted a great deal of attention—excuse meamong the people of Costa Rica. It was on account of my light hair. They are just crasy about blondes in Costa Rica."

When the Calamares reached her pier in the East River Miss Dorothy Russell, daughter of the famous beauty, was on the stringpiece. She was attired in a green gown.

"Hello, ma!" cried Dorothy. "I'm going to work at Hammerstein's next week."

"How lovely," said ma, waving her bag.

John Downey, a bollermaker out of ladder and urings of services will neutralise the scids in the wolland of the continue this for two or three was no longer is a source of irritation at laboratory of the famous beauty, was on the stringpiece. She was attired in a green gown.

"Hello, ma!" cried Dorothy. "I'm going to work at Hammerstein's next week."

"How lovely," said ma, waving her bag.

John Downey, a bollermaker out of leader and urings of work at Hammerstein's next week."

subject to urinary disorders excessure acid irritation. Jad Salts is call whatever.

White Rose Coffee, Only 35c.a

The Delicious Laxative Chocolate cleanse your system in a natural, healthy manner, without pain or Ex-Lax will relieve your bowels of the undigested waste matter to several hours your head will be clear and your eyes will sparkle.

One 10e box of Ex-Lax is enough to convince you. Get it at your drug store to-day. 10c, 25c and 50c.

Don't Let Your Stomach Trouble You

When you feel miserable, run down, have a bad taste in the mouth, coated heard next Monday. tongue and frequent headaches it is a sure sign that your stomach, liver and bowels are not in order and need a good, thorough cleansing at once.